

UWM Research Foundation
Rockwell Catalyst Grant Program
Call for Proposals – Fall 2009

The UWM Research Foundation is pleased to announce a call for proposals in the third round of the Rockwell Catalyst Grant Program. In each of the first two rounds, $170,000 was awarded in three grants. A similar amount will be awarded in this round of funding (including awards made through the Southeastern Wisconsin Energy Technology Research Center).

These awards will be made to seed promising research in the areas of software & informatics, sensors & devices and materials. Awards are targeted in the amount of $60,000 for a 12 month award starting January 1, 2010.

Proposals must be submitted to the UWM Research Foundation by Friday, October 16, 2009. Summary of the program and a proposal template and budget instructions are available on the UWM Research Foundation website at www.uwmresearchfoundation.org. (also attached)
